

INDEX FOR VOLUME II
Series of Interviews with
ADMIRAL EDWIN J. ROLAND, USCG (Ret.)

ALASKA: Weather, p. 638-9; Loran stations, p. 639-40; the Coast Guard district in Juneau, p. 642-3; the new harbor at Whittier, p. 645-6;

ALEUTIAN ISLANDS: p. 636-7; Adm. Roland's story of the I.D. card, p. 637-8; p. 641-2;

AMERICAN CUP RACES: Coast Guard responsibilities, p. 478 ff;

AMERICAN RED CROSS: cooperation with Coast Guard in flood rescue operations, p. 569;

AMPHIBIANS: continued use by Coast Guard, p. 475-6;

AMVERS (Atlantic Merchant Marine Vessel Reporting System), p. 488-91; p. 493; p. 555-6; p. 560;

SS ANDREA DORIA: Collision with the SS STOCKHOLM, p. 417 ff; see also entries under U. S. COAST GUARD - FIRST DISTRICT

AVERY POINT: Coast Guard has established an R and D organization there, p. 583;

BARTLETT, The Hon. Edward L.: p. 605;

BERING SEA PATROL: p. 635;

BOARDING VESSELS - Task of, p. 462-3;

BOSTON LIGHT: p. 443;

CALAIS, Maine: incident involving Coast Guard icebreaker and foreign tanker, p. 484;

CALIFANO, The Hon. Joseph: his role in transfer of the Coast Guard to Dept. of Transportation, p. 741 ff;

CAMRAHN BAY: see entries under VIETNAM

CAPE ATHOLL (near Thule, Greenland): p. 421-2; Roland visits Loran Station at Cape Atholl, p. 423 ff; p. 429;

CAPRON, Captain W. C.: served on Rolls and Missions Committee (1962), p. 527-8;

USCGS CASCO: equipped with scientific instruments for oceanographic data, p. 632;

CHAMPUS: medical arrangements whereby military patients have choice of treatment, p. 696-7;

COMBAT ARTISTS: in the Coast Guard, World War II, p. 414-416;

COMPUTERS: Roland acquires a knowledge, p. 494;

USS CONSTITUTION: p. 501-2; p. 504;

COST EFFECTIVENESS: p. 551-2;

CUBAN REFUGEE TRAFFIC: p. 593-9;

DANANG: see entries under VIETNAM

DATUM MARKER BUOY: p. 563;

DEW LINE STATIONS: p. 469;

DILLON, The Hon. C. Douglas: Secretary of the Treasury-proposed the Rolls and Missions Study for the Coast Guard (1961), p. 527; p. 529; p. 534-5;

DISCIPLINE AND THE COAST GUARD: p. 682-3;

DRUGS - and use by Coast Guard personnel; p. 680-1;

USCGS EAGLE: p. 482; p. 608-9;

ERICKSON, Captain Frank A.: his problems with early helicopters, p. 572-3;

FLUES, The Hon. Gilmore: Assistant Secretary of the Treasury - a friend of the Coast Guard, p. 534-5;

FOREIGN FISHING VESSELS: p. 458-60; p. 600; the Russians and the Japanese, p. 600-1; recourse to the Courts, p. 601-5; Sealing, p. 606-7; Russian fishing fleet in the Atlantic, p. 608-614;

GEMINI SPACE SHOT: Coast Guard participation in, p. 566-7;

GOAD, Sir Colin: p. 745;

GREENE, General Wallace M., Jr.: Commandant of Marines, p. 656-7; p. 663;

SS GULF OIL: collides with AO GRAHAM - in Narragansett Bay, p. 448 ff;

HAYES, RADM Jack - Secretary of Board to study Rolls and Missions, p. 527-8;

HELICOPTERS: p. 476-7; use of in flood rescue efforts, p. 568; increased use in rescue operations, p. 570-1; replaced old amphibians, p. 572-3; increasing need for pilots, p. 718;

HIRSHFIELD, VADM J. A.: p. 475; retires on Feb. 1, 1962 and succeeded by Roland, p. 505;

HYDROFOILS: Coast Guard gets involved with setting up standards when they began to be used in place of ferryboats, p. 582-4;

ICE PATROL: p. 429; p. 435; p. 646-8;

IMCO (Inter-governmental Maritime Consultative Organization): p. 560; p. 584-6; Roland's attendance at meetings during years as commandant, p. 721; Maritime Safety Committee, p. 721; p. 724-5; most outstanding achievement in years Roland attended, p. 725-6; p. 732-3; p. 745; Roland mentioned for Secretary General after retirement, p. 745 ff;

ISLE OF SHOALS: Coast Guard Light Station, p. 438-40;

IWO JIMA: problem of supplying Loran station there, p. 543-4;

KENNEDY, The Hon. John F.: his operation of Coast Guard ships, p. 552-3;

KERRINS BOARD: named after RADM Joseph A. Kerrins, Chairman - it's report on promotion in the Coast Guard inherited by Roland when he took over as Commandant, p. 509 ff; change over to a "best fitted" system rather than a "fully qualified" one for promotions, p. 510-11 deep selections, p. 511-3; p. 515; Roland gathers expert opinions on report, p. 515-7; getting approval for the new system, p. 518-21;

LICENSES - for Merchant Marine personnel; p. 590-1;

LOAD LINES: p. 722-4;

LODGE, The Hon. Henry Cabot: U. S. Ambassador to the United Nations, p. 479-80; p. 482;

LORAN STATIONS: p. 544-5; foreign operation of Loran stations, p. 545-6; foreign states take over supplies, p. 545-6; in Alaska, p. 639-40; p. 644; 684; see also: Aids to Navigation; Cape Atholl;

MAGNUSON, THE HON. WARREN: p. 605;

MARINE INSPECTION SERVICE: becomes part of the U. S. Coast Guard, p. 574 ff; manner in which motor boat numbering becomes a duty of Coast Guard, p. 578-9; the practice of boarding boats to check on credentials, etc., p. 579-81;

MINOT'S LEDGE: Coast Guard Light - near Boston, p. 442;

MURPHY, RADM Charles: p. 515-6; p. 587; p. 733;

USS NAUTILUS: her voyage through the Davis Strait, p. 435;

USCGC NORTHWIND: on scientific expedition, p. 631-3;

NUCLEAR POWER: Coast Guard has to train nuclear engineers to deal with subject, p. 587-8;

OCEANOGRAPHY: Stressed by the Project Committee of Rolls and Missions as a desirable subject for Coast Guard involvement, p. 529-30; p. 626-9; Coast Guard utilizes weather patrols to gather data for oceanography, p. 629-33; Admiral Willard Smith takes oceanography as a major interest when he becomes commandant, p. 633-4; seismic studies in Lake Superior, p. 634;

OFFSHORE DRILLS: p. 589;

OIL POLLUTION: p. 615 ff; Coast Guard gets the primary administrative responsibility under Oil Pollution Act - regulations governing Great Lakes made to conform, p. 616;

PENOBSCOT RIVER: oil tankers in the river - Coast Guard breaks ice, p. 483-4; p. 486-7;

PETERSON, Captain Oliver A.: succeeds Reid-Hill in job as Public Relations man, p. 410;

PHU QUAK: see entries under VIETNAM

PILOT'S LICENCE: p. 456-7;

PORT SECURITY: present day efforts in New York Harbor, p. 445-6; p. 621; Coast Guard forced to discontinue practice of issuing port security cards, p. 622; use of reservists for training in New York Harbor, p. 622-4;

PUBLIC RELATIONS IN THE COAST GUARD: p. 409 ff; Ellis Reid-Hill in World War II, p. 410-412; origin of the famous Coast Guard stripe, p. 412-3;

RANEY, RADM Roy L. USCG: Commanding Officer, 1st Coast Guard District at time of collision of SS STOCKHOLM and the SS ANDREA DORIA, p. 416-7;

REID-HILL, RADM Ellis (USCGR); builds up Public Relations organization in World War II, p. 400; p. 414;

RICHMOND, Adm. Alfred C., USCG: p. 405; creates job as Chief of Staff in Headquarters, p. 409; p. 457-8; Roland becomes Assistant Commandant, Feb. 1962 - with assurance he would succeed Richmond upon his retirement, p. 505-6; unhappy about his last budget (1962) especially amount allocated for Acquisition, etc., p. 506; p. 508; p. 515; his plans for new resident for Commandant, p. 522; retired on May 31, 1962, p. 535; sued in port security matter, p. 621;

RICKOVER, Adm. Hyman G: p. 436;

ROLAND, Adm. Edwin J., USCG: receives Medal of the City of New York, p. 503-5; becomes Assistant Commandant, Feb. 1962 with assurances he would become next Commandant, p. 505; as Assistant Commandant, p. 508-9; as Commandant (1962-66) - management improvement - streamlining - hallmarks of his administration, p. 535-7; suggestions encouraged from Coast Guard personnel and civilians, p. 539-41; installation of automatic data processing, p. 541-3; Cost reductions in traffic management, p. 543-4; closing of shore stations, etc., p. 546-8; Roland discusses most important developments in his years as Commandant, p. 733-744; Rolls and Missions, p. 733-4; new construction plans, p. 734; increased use of helicopters, p. 735-6; C-130s, p. 735; improved appropriations, p. 736-7; Loran C, p. 737-9; involvement in Vietnam, p. 739; relations with Congress, p. 739-40; transfer of Coast Guard to Department of Transportation, p. 741 ff; quarters for the Commandant, p. 744-5; retirement, p. 744;

ROLLS AND MISSIONS: A study of the Coast Guard, p. 527 ff; roster of men who served on Project Staff and did the spade work, p. 528; study stimulated a ship building program for the Coast Guard, p. 533-4;

RUSSIAN FISHING VESSELS: see entry under Foreign Fishing Vessels

SAIGON: see entries under VIETNAM

SS SAVANNAH: nuclear powered merchant ship - required new regulations from the Coast Guard, p. 587-8;

SHIELD CLUB: Boston Club composed of Coast Guard Temporary Reservists, p. 444;

SMITH, RADM Edward (Iceberg): p. 430-432; becomes early expert of the Coast Guard in Oceanography, p. 628-9;

SMITH, Admiral Willard: Commandant of the U. S. Coast Guard - his interest in Oceanography, p. 633-35;

SOLAS (Safety of Life at Sea): p. 581-2;

SPARS: p. 718-721;

STATEN ISLAND FERRY: p. 495-6;

SS STOCKHOLM: Collision with the SS ANDREA DØRIA, p. 417 ff; see also entries under U. S. COAST GUARD - FIRST DISTRICT

TAYLOR, General Maxwell; p. 671; p. 673;

THAYER, Rear Admiral Louis M. Jr.: in command of Coast Guard station in Florida - handled some of Cuban refugee traffic, p. 594-6;

TRANSPORTATION DEPARTMENT: p. 741;

TRANSPORTATION OF CHEMICALS AND LIQUID GAS: a new problem for the Coast Guard - shipment by water, p. 586-7; p. 619 ff; Coast Guard makes a study, p. 619; sets minimum standards for new vessels designed to carry chemicals, etc. p. 620;

TRIMBLE, Vice Admiral Paul E.: Chief of Staff to Adm. Roland as Commandant,

p. 537; an expert on management problems, p. 537-8; Adm. Willard Smith asks him to stay on as his Assistant Commandant, p. 538; becomes President of Lake Carriers Association in Cleveland, p. 538;

- U. S. COASTGUARD - ACADEMY: murals at the Academy, p. 415-6;
- U. S. COAST GUARD - AIDS TO NAVIGATION: Loran stations in Greenland and Labrador - under First District Command, p. 420-2; Boone Island and Mt. Desert Rock off Maine Coast, p. 424-7; p. 441-3; changes during time Roland was Commandant, p. 697; replacement of Light Ships by towers, p. 698-701; buoys replace towers, p. 701-2; radio beacon system, p. 703-4; cooperation with Canadian government, p. 703-5; difficulties in replacing manned light stations, p. 706-7;
- U. S. COASTGUARD- AUXILIARY: use in Coast Guard Patrols, p. 481-2;
- U. S. COASTGUARD- BUDGET: difficulty in getting increased amounts in Budget for Acquisition, Construction and improvement, p. 506-8;
- U. S. COAST GUARD - BUREAU OF MARINE INSPECTION: p. 729-732; See also entries under: MARINE INSPECTION SERVICE
- U. S. COAST GUARD - COMMUNICATIONS: in times past Coast Guard had network of telephone lines connecting Life Boat Stations, p. 689-691;
- U. S. COAST GUARD - EASTERN AREA COMMAND: Roland takes command (July 1, 1960), p. 487; the AMVERS setup, p. 488 ff; living quarters for Commander on Staten Island, p. 495; social demands of the job, p. 498; assistance given to the City of New York, p. 503-5;
- U. S. COAST GUARD - FIRST DISTRICT (Boston): p. 416-7; collision of the SS STOCKHOLM and the SS ANDREA DORIA, p. 417-21; scope of First District command, p. 421; p. 437; difficulty in automating light stations, p. 437 ff; assistance to Fish and Wild Life Officials, p. 458; Life Boat Stations and modernization, p. 471-3;
- U. S. COAST GUARD - Housing for the Commandant, p. 521-6; project finally developed into houses for both Commandant and Deputy Commandant, p. 526;
- U. S. COAST GUARD - IMAGE STUDIES: A study to improve image results in recognizable signs for honor platoons around Washington, p. 552-3; a change in uniform, p. 554-5;
- U. S. COAST GUARD - INTELLIGENCE: p. 651-5;
- U. S. COAST GUARD - LAW ENFORCEMENT: role of the Coast Guard, p. 592; Cuban refugees, p. 593-99; foreign fishing vessels, p. 600;

U. S. COAST GUARD - LIGHT STATIONS: difficulty in changing to automation, p. 548-9; p. 550, p. 707-8;

U. S. COAST GUARD - OTHER FEDERAL AGENCIES: p. 683 ff; Geodetic, p. 685-6; Fish and Wildlife, p. 687-88; p. 694-5; Public Health Service, p. 695 ff; p. 715;

U. S. COAST GUARD - RESERVISTS: serve as Port Security people today, p. 716-7; aviation training for reservists, p. 717-8;

U. S. COAST GUARD - SEARCH AND RESCUE: cooperation with other governmental offices, p. 559-60; IMCO meetings concerned with Search and Rescue, p. 560-1; air droppable pump, p. 561-2; use of ice skiff, p. 562-3; buoy carried by planes sends signals in time of distress, p. 564-5; the Gemini space shot - Coast Guard participation, p. 566-7; floods and rescue operations, p. 567; cooperation with the American Red Cross in flood operations, p. 569;

U. S. COAST GUARD - WEATHER STATIONS: mechanics of manning them in Atlantic, p. 464-5; patrol areas and weather duties, p. 465-7; p. 470; p. 563; p. 709-714;

U. S. CUSTOMS SERVICE: activity in Boston Harbor, p. 446-7;

U. S. PUBLIC HEALTH SERVICE: medical service to the coast guard, p. 558-9; p. 695 ff;

VIETNAM: Adm. Roland receives the Legion of Merit for his efforts with readiness of Coast Guard units for participation in Vietnam, p. 655-663; Roland visits Vietnam, p. 665-674; more on Readiness for participation, p. 676; training, p. 676-7; selection of personnel, p. 678;

WAESCHE, Admiral R. R.: As Commandant was interested in getting Marine Inspection Service incorporated into the Coast Guard, p. 575;

WALT, Lt. Gen. Lewis M.: Marine General at Danang, p. 665; p. 667-9;

WESTMORELAND, General Wm. C.: his optimism over outcome of Vietnam vanishes, p. 672;

ZUMWALT, Admiral Elmo: p. 514-5;